

Tangerine Academy launched and conducting Thailand's first Transgender Competent Care training

📅 August 27, 2020

September 15, 2020 – IHRI and the Center of Excellence in Transgender Health (CETH) Chulalongkorn University, with the support from #USAID, successfully launched the Tangerine Academy and organized the first Transgender Competent Care training on September 14-15, 2020. The training was attended by 50 healthcare providers from 14 medical institutions across the country. This historical training aimed to strengthen the capacity of healthcare providers in providing trans-competent healthcare services to transgender communities in Thailand.

The first Transgender Health Guideline was also introduced at this workshop. The electronic publication can be accessed here. English version will be available soon, stay tuned!
